"Encyclopedia Brown read more books than anyone in Idaville, and he never forgot a fact. His pals said he was like a library and a computer rolled into one, and more user-friendly."

Donald J. Sobol, US author, from Encyclopedia Brown and The Case of the Disgusting Sneakers.

Enter Library. Walk approximately 24 feet forward to the Grandfather Clock. Turn left and walk straight approximately 18 feet to the stairs. Walk up the stairs.

Turn right and walk approximately 10 feet. Look up to your right and salute our library's namesake Mrs. Susan M. Weaver.

Turn 90 degrees to the left and walk approximately 30 feet forward. Look to your left and say hello to the librarian at the desk.
